

Something About the Wind

(Sidney Hall, Jr.)

There's something about the wind coming off the ocean, the waves washing the rocks that makes a person who is quickly annoyed by cigarette smoke and men putting nails into roofs forgetful and unconcerned.
If you are easily disturbed you need to get an ocean.